Naples, May 12.

ON the 5th Inſtant died Don Nicholas de Sangro, Captain General of the King's Forces, and the next Day his Corpſe, accompanied with ſeveral Officers, and a Detachment of Troops, was interred with the uſual Military Formality. The King has preſented the Prince of Camporeale, who is appointed his Ambaſſador to the Court of Vienna, with 54000 Ducats, towards the Expences of putting himſelf in a ſuitable Condition for that Embaſſy. He has requeſted of the King two Half Gallies to conduct him to Trieſte, but he has not as yet been able to obtain them. The Court continues at Portici, where the ſecond Infanta has been dangerouſly ill.

Rome, May 16. The Motive of the Arreſt, in this City, of the Prince of Filomarino, jun. at the Requeſt of the King of Naples, was, for having run away with a young Lady that had made her Eſcape out of a Nunnery, to Ginevra and Venice, where he had left her with M. Caraccioli the Pope's Nuncio. The Diſagreements between the Pope and the Senate of Venice, with regard to the Patriarch of Aquilea, were come to ſuch a Pitch as would in all Probability have occaſioned an open Rupture, had not the French Court offered her Mediation to reconcile them, which they ſay has been accepted by both Parties. The 13th Inſtant, being the Empreſs's Birth-Day, Cardinal Mellini received the Compliments on that occaſion from the College of Cardinals, the Foreign Miniſters, Prelates, and Nobility; there were in Perſon eight Cardinals, Subjects of her Imperial Majeſty.

Florence, May 22. The Empreſs's Birth-Day was celebrated here on the 13th Inſtant with the uſual Solemnity, on which Occaſion Count Richecourt entertained at Dinner the Foreign Miniſters, and many of the Nobility, who appeared in their rich Habits; and in the Evening the Cannon of the Caſtles were fired, and the Fire-Works played off. The ſame Day the Margrave of Baden Dourlach returned to this City from a Tour he made to Leghorn, Piſa, and Lucca, and, after having obſerved the Curioſities of this City, ſet out from hence this Morning on his Journey to Turin, to aſſiſt at the Feſtivals for the Nuptials of the Duke of Savoy and the Infanta of Spain. On the 18th another Picket of Soldiers, out of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards, deſerted from their Duty at one of the Gates of this City. The ſame Day ſeveral Soldiers of the ſaid Regiment, who had formerly deſerted, and were taken up again and condemned for ſeveral Years to hard Labour, took Occaſion to over-power the Centinel and the Detachment of Soldiers that guarded them whilſt they were at Work, made themſelves Maſters of their Arms, and attempted their Eſcape, but were prevented by the City Gates being ordered to be ſhut; on this Occaſion a Corporal was killed, and ſeveral Soldiers wounded. They are now cloſely confined, and it is thought ſome of them will be put to Death. Count Richecourt returned laſt Night from the Confines of Bologna, where he went to confer with Cardinal Doria, the Legat of that City, about the new Road which is making from Florence to Bologna.

Petersbourg, May 19. On the 14th Inſtant, the Anniverſary of the Eſtabliſhment of the four Regiments of Foot Guards was celebrated here as uſual, when all the Officers of thoſe Regiments had the Honour to dine with her Imperial Majeſty. Letters have been received here from Ghilan, a Province in Perſia, which mention a new Revolution in that Kingdom; alledging, that Ibrahim Schach having had the Misfortune to loſe a Battle, had fallen into the Hands of his Enemies, who had cauſed his Eyes to be put out, and had elected a new Schach in his Room. Theſe Letters add, that the different Factions in that Empire, which were continually waging War with each other, had almoſt ruined ſeveral of their fineſt Provinces.

Warſaw, May 23. The Dietines for the electing Deputies to the General Diet, commence on the 23d of next Month, as well in Poland as Lithuania, and ſeveral Perſons are already ſet out from hence to aſſiſt at them; and the opening of the General Diet of this Kingdom is fixed for the 24th of Auguſt next.

Turin, May 23. The expected Promotion of the Knights of the Order of the Annunciation is made. There were 16 Vacancies, all which the King has filled up. The Duke of Chablais is at the Head of the Liſt. The reſt are old Officers and Men of the firſt Families here, but none of them are in the Miniſtry. It is now declared, that the Chevalier Oſorio will be made Secretary of State ſoon after his Arrival here from Spain. The Marquis Pallavicini de Roma is daily expected here from the Court of Parma, to compliment this Court on the Duke of Savoy's Marriage; after which he is to accompany the Ambaſſadors of Spain and Naples to Briancon, to meet the Dutcheſs: And the Venetian Ambaſſador, who is going to the Court of Spain, is to paſs through this City in his Way thither, in order to compliment the King on this Occaſion.

Stockholm, May 26. On the 15th Inſtant in the Morning the Prince Succeſſor came hither from Drottningholm, and immediately waited on his Majeſty, after which his Highneſs ſet out by Water for Waxholm, and having viſited the Arſenal and Magazines of that Fortreſs, returned the next Day to Drottningholm; from whence he ſet out again this Morning for Nykioping, on his Way to Sudermania, where he propoſes viſiting the Troops quartered in that Province. We have nothing remarkable from Finland, every Thing there remaining in perfect Tranquility.

Berlin, June 2. Yeſterday the Princes Henry and Ferdinand ſet out from hence for Pruſſia; and this Morning at Four o'Clock his Majeſty, accompanied accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and ſeveral General Officers and other Perſons of Diſtinction, took the ſame Route. His Majeſty propoſes reaching Stargard this Evening, where Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deſſau, Governor of that Place, has been ſome Days making Preparations for his Majeſty's Reception. Laſt Week died Count Leopold de Schwerin, Major General of Foot, and Colonel of the Regiment of Fuſiliers of Wurtemberg.

Paris, June 6. This Court will leave Verſailles the Beginning of next Week for Compiegne.

Hague, June 9. By a Ship which arrived laſt Saturday from Surinam, we are informed, that the Inſurrection of the Negroes was quite ſuppreſſed by a Company of Burghers, headed by their Captain, who, after coming up with the Rebels, had killed ſome, and taken ſeveral Priſoners, who were carried to Paramaibo, and there executed publickly; the few remaining were ſo diſperſed about the Woods, that it was thought they muſt periſh through Want. The Letters received on this Occaſion, attribute the Revolt to the Tyranny of Monſ. Thomas, the Man whoſe Plantation was deſtroyed, and himſelf and his Family murthered by a Negro Slave, whoſe Wife Monſ. Thomas had taken away, and who, in order to gratify his Revenge, engaged all the other Slaves who were diſcontented with their Maſters, to join with him in his Attempt. Notwithſtanding this News, the Troops deſtined for that Place are to be ſhipped off in a few Days, and the Officers who are to command them have received Orders to repair immediately to Naarden, where they are now aſſembled. The Prince of Orange's Departure for Zealand is not yet determined, though it is expected his Serene Highneſs will ſet out from hence about the latter End of this Week, or the Beginning of the next. The States of that Province are to aſſemble on the 15th Inſtant.

Whitehall, May 17, 1750.

Whereas the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the Eaſt Indies, have, by their Petition, humbly repreſented to the Lords Juſtices, that divers Goods and Merchandizes, belonging to them, have been ſtolen out of their Ships and Lighters, and out of their Warehouſes, after the ſame have been landed; which Practices the ſaid Company greatly attribute to the Perſons who buy thoſe Goods when ſtolen; Their Excellencies, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice ſuch Offenders, and to deter others from committing ſuch illegal Practices for the Future, are pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover any of his, her, or their Accomplices, concerned either in ſtealing of the ſaid Goods, or in purchaſing the ſame, knowing them to be ſtolen, ſo as he, ſhe, or they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. Ri. Nev. Aldworth.

And as a further Encouragement, the Court of Directors of the Eaſt India Company do hereby promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery, to be paid upon the Conviction of any ſuch Offender or Offenders.

By Order of the Court of Directors,
Robert James, Secretary.

Georgia Office, Weſtminſter, May 25, 1750.

Whereas the Truſtees for eſtabliſhing the Colony of Georgia in America, thought it neceſſary in the firſt Eſtabliſhment of that Colony to reſtrain the Grants they made of Lots of Land to limitted Tenures only, in order thereby to prevent many Abuſes which at that Time might probably have defeated the good Ends propoſed by that Eſtabliſhment, and during the late War it might have been of dangerous Conſequence to have alter'd the Tenures; but as a general Peace and Tranquility happily prevail, the ſaid Truſtees are of Opinion, that the intended Enlargement of the Tenures may now be ſafely made, and have come to the following Reſolution, viz.

That the Tenures of all Grants of Land whatſoever already made to any Perſons within the Province of Georgia be enlarg'd and extended to an abſolute Inheritance; and that all future Grants of Land ſhall be of an abſolute Inheritance to the Grantees, their Heirs and Aſſigns. Sign'd by Order of the Truſtees.
